No Negro Social Equality for Them.

The Savannah Republican says, THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION asserted, one day last week, that Mr. Bullock had entertained, at the Governor's residence, a newly married negro couple, and took it back in its next issue, as a mistake. Whereupon the New Era says:

"This paragraph will, of course, be industriously circulated by the opposition press all over the State. We will now see whether they will copy the retraxit, which THE CONSTITUTION made in its evening edition of the same day."

To which the Columbus Enquirer aptly replies: "We did not copy the paragraph, and therefore have no correction to make. But the anxiety of the New Era to have the correction circulated puzzles us. Does it mean to say that a Radical official, owing his office to negro votes, feels outraged or indignant at a report that a negro couple had been entertained at his house? Is this the measure of Radical gratitude for the services of the negro—of Radical sincerity in claiming "equality" for the negro—of Radical respect for a race whose exclusion from office is made the pretext for demanding Georgia to a provisional and military government?

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Rev. C. W. Howard, of Bartow, is a candidate for Secretary of the State Agricultural Society. He would be of eminent service and we hope he will be elected. Members should send on their votes addressed to B. C. Yancey, care of Col. Howard of Atlanta.—Marietta Journal.

Atlanta as a Market.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that a great many of the Atlanta merchants are inviting trade from this section to that enterprising and growing city. They are determined to build up a large wholesale trade. In fact, they have now a very heavy wholesale trade—even from this State—and that too from some of the best Railroad towns in our state. They are offering great inducements to merchants. And we think it would be to the interest of the merchants of this section to visit Atlanta and give them a fair trial. It is much nearer than any other market of any magnitude, and they propose to sell as cheap as you can buy this side of New York city. You save time and money by buying in Atlanta.—Centre Alabama Advertiser.

Something for Foreigners to Read.

Relying upon the negro vote, the Radicals of Indiana have already commenced a crusade against the Germans of that State. A leading Radical of Indianapolis recently declared, and no doubt he expressed the sentiment of the leading men of that party, that the Radicals had "stall-fed these Dutch long enough; and now, as it had negroes enough to offset the German vote, the Dutch might go." Acting upon this idea the Germans were ignored in all the nominating conventions which have been held in Indiana, while the negroes were flattered and denominated the "coming men." This elevation of negroes over white men by the Radicals of the West will be followed in all the States. They hate the "sour-bellied Dutch" and the "onion-eating Irish," but will take to their arms the negro, place him in office, force him into opera-houses, theatres and all other places of amusement, compel keepers of hotels to seat him at their tables, and locate his children in the public schools. This is the Radical game in connection with the negro. It has commenced in Indiana. It will be followed in this State. Negroes will be placed on the Radical ticket, but no "stall-fed" Dutch need apply."

They will be nominated for members of Council, for Aldermen, for School Directors. These responsible positions will be laid at the feet of negroes as a bait to secure their votes. And what will white men answer to this movement? Are they willing that the steady German and the industrious and intelligent Irishman shall be insulted and pushed aside to make room for negroes? They will have to meet this question at the polls, to take one side or the other of the line drawn by the Radical party. That party is not content to force the negro upon the country by fraud and force, but they are determined to drag down white men who are opposed to negro suffrage and its attendant negro equality. This is the pith of the negro movement, and white men must face it firmly.—Philadelphia Age.

We commend the above article to the serious consideration of our foreign citizens. It is a question to be calmly considered by all included in the sweeping assertion of leading Radicals, and we feel assured that the good sense of the German and Irish citizens of Georgia will neither countenance nor give aid to a party so plainly seeking to destroy their political rights and social welfare.

☞ The Radical-politico-religious paper of this city has the following unique and irrelevant commentary upon the late habeas corpus case of Mr. John Stephens. It says:

Is there no law against crime in this State? Are loyal people without protection in the courts? Is there no punishment for "respectable" white men, let them do what they will? Has Georgia become an asylum for knaves?

The writer seems to doubt the existence of laws against crimes in Georgia. Laws to prevent and punish crimes in this State do exist—laws made by Radical Conventions and Legislatures, and enforced by Radical Courts and Judges; nor are loyal people without the protection of laws so enforced. "Respectable" white men need no punishment. A criminal can not be said to be "respectable," in an sense of the word, hence there is neither sense nor point in this politico-religious writer's query.

The writer further desires to know whether Georgia has become an asylum for knaves? With sincere regret we are forced to admit that Georgia has become quite a favorite resort and asylum for knaves of every description; for even if we were to attempt a denial of the disagreeable fact, a glance at many of the individuals now occupying places of trust and power in this State, would utterly refute the assertion—political adventurers, void of conscience and of brains; leeches upon every part of the State, draining its life upon the body of the State, drained to its dregs by the buccaneers of party, whose only motto is "booty," and who feast upon the ruin of the land desecrated by their presence. If such as these be "knaves," Georgia can truly be said to be an asylum for quite a large number.

We trust our politico-religious contemporary will be satisfied with our answers to his quaint and highly ingenious queries.

Food for Farmers.

POULTRY PENTALOGUE.—A few weeks ago, somebody in England published a little work which he called "Poultry Pentalogue," in which the whole art of fowl-breeding is summed up in five grand rules:

1. Pure breed;
2. A constant infusion of fresh blood, and a careful avoidance of in-and-in breeding;
3. A varied diet;
4. Equable temperature; and—
5. Strict cleanliness.

Good rules and easily remembered. We commend them to our readers, who may profitably apply them to other stock besides fowls.—Rural Carolinian.

COOKED FOOD FOR STOCK.—It has been settled by numberless experiments that cooking food for cattle or hogs adds about fifty per cent to its value. If a man has but a few animals to feed it will cost him but little to get his corn ground, and then thoroughly cook or steam before feeding. If he is a large stock feeder, then he should have his own machinery for grinding corn and cooking it on a scale commensurate with his wants. No outlay on a stock farm will pay better than a grinding an cooking apparatus. Try it on a small scale, and be convinced.

AGRICULTURE IN THE GALAXY.—Mark Twain, having been engaged to conduct a new department in the Galaxy, with the first "copy" for the May number, sends the following characteristic letter to the editor:

BUFFALO, April 2. Mr. F. P. Church, Editor of the Galaxy—DEAR SIR: My own paper, the Buffalo Express, does not occupy my entire time, and therefore I accept of your offer, and from the present time forward will edit and conduct the "Department of Agriculture" in the Galaxy Magazine. I thank you for leaving to me the selection of a department, and in choosing that of agriculture, I feel that my judgment has answered your highest expectations.

I have not made this choice at hap-hazard. After careful survey of the ground, I saw that the subject of agriculture had been wholly overlooked by the magazines of the day as a sensational topic, and that still that was necessary to fill up was to enter and seize this rich opportunity. Fortune is accused to us. Nothing can prevent such a consummation. In this virgin soil I will insert a reaping-hook that shall blossom like a rose, upon this sailless desert I will launch a triumphal barge; in this deep mine of affluence I will plant a sturdy tree of prosperity whose fragrance shall slake the hunger of the naked, and whose shattering branches shall stretch abroad until they wash the shore of the remotest lands of the earth. (I never can touch the subject of Agriculture without getting excited. But you understand what I mean.) Under the head of "Memoranda," I shall take hold of this neglected topic, and by means of a series of farming and grazing articles of blood-curdling interest will proceed to lift the subject of Agriculture into the first rank of literary respectability.

Herewith please find my manuscript for your May number.

MARK TWAIN.

P. S.—I have no practical knowledge of Agriculture, but that need not interfere. You may have noticed that the less I know about a subject the more confidence I have, and the more new light I throw on it.

Funny.

Some things are funny—some are funnier—but the funniest thing that has happened lately in this city was a few evenings ago, when the colored folks held their jubilee over the promulgation of the 15th Amendment.

Among the speakers on that occasion was Sam. S. Sample, of this city, who poured forth his accustomed strains of thrilling eloquence over negro suffrage throughout the United States. Sam is brassy and full of check, as everybody in this city knows; but it must have required an extra amount of brass and cheek for him to get up on such an occasion and spread himself before the negroes of this city as one of the champions of negro suffrage, when every negro in the audience knew that notwithstanding all he was a Radical of the most radical stripe.

Only one year ago, when the question of enfranchising the negroes in this State was submitted for adoption by ballot, he had printed, at his own expense, Radical tickets with the words against amending our State Constitution so as to allow negroes to vote printed upon them, which said tickets he stood all day and peddled out to his brother Radicals to vote.

The conduct of Sam. Sample is a fair sample of Radical bunkey generally upon the question of negro suffrage and love for the negroes for the purpose of getting their votes.—Kenkuk.

Decoration of Confederate Soldiers' Graves.

Active preparations are going on in the cities of the South for the decoration of the graves of those who died in the cause of the Confederacy during the war. We notice in our exchanges that the memorial celebration of this year, promises to eclipse any thing of the kind yet witnessed, and a touching emulation is apparent all over the country among the various associations, to excel each other in making this occasion one of deep and memorable interest.

In this city, the 10th of May has been designated for the anniversary. Although nothing has yet publicly transpired as to the steps taken by our citizens in the coming celebration, yet we feel assured that the ladies of Atlanta, will not suffer their fair sisters in other cities to excel them in their devotion to the memory of the Southern dead; and that the emblems of immortality and the garlands of faith and affection will be strewn as thickly over the turf of those who sleep in the Cemetery of Atlanta, as any other spot of Southern soil, rendered sacred by their ashes, and hallowed by the fair hands of the women of the South.

Out of Funds as Well as Humor.

The delegation of Georgia's negro Senators and Representatives, which recently went to Washington in order to help Bullock against the Bingham Amendment, but who, on account of their "pecuniary condition," are now forced to return home, where board and lodging is cheaper, publish a card of thanks, in the Washington Chronicle, in which, in the name of 500,000 colored citizens of Georgia, they return thanks to Grant and others for their influence against the Bingham Amendment, and lauding the Wilson Substitute, as the perfection of Congressional legislation.

Speaking of the Bingham Amendment, they say "it is only an engine of rebel power, and conveys words of despair to the loyal men of Georgia, and words of cheer to the disloyal:" and yet, strange to say, this very Amendment is a measure simply intended to carry out the provisions of a Constitution framed by the Radicals themselves,

The young fry of the Republican Club of Atlanta stigmatize this same amendment as an "iniquity." What rare iconoclasts these people are, destroying the works of their own hands, and upsetting their favorite idols, almost before the clay is dry out of which they formed them. Why ride their great hobby, "inconsistency," to death? or is it simply ignorance of the meaning of words and phrases?

By the way, is it not rather shabby on the part of Bullock, Blodgett & Co. to let their favorie colored conadjutors suffer for the necessaries of life in the metropolis when a paltry thousand or two could easily be appropriated for their sustenance out of the pockets of that immaculate firm?

How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is,
To have a thankless—masters.

Have the People any Rights?

Under this caption, the Charleston Courier has an ably written leader denouncing the destructive and law-defying policy of the Radical party, and, in illustration, cites the case of Louisiana, where, for two years past, the five Representatives to Congress to which that State is entitled have been kept from assuming the posts to which the voice of the people called them, and all of this in the face of majorities given them, in lawful ballot, of from five to twelve thousand votes. The reason of this outrageous proceeding is that the gentlemen elected were conservative, their defeated opponents Radicals.

Baker (Radical) Chairman of the State Board of Registration, stated, in the presence of the entire Board, that it was the intention of the majority to show no favor to the Democratic party, and, to use his own expression, "to crush them out if possible." And, again, at the conference of the campaign committees of the two parties to secure, during the canvass, peace and harmony, General McMillan, one of the Radical leaders, openly declared that, unless "the entire policy of the Radical party was accepted, nothing could be done in the interests of peace and order."

"To crush them out, if possible"—aye, that's the word! What rights have the people of the South, that Radicalism is bound to respect? If they will not bend, break them. "Unless they accept the entire policy of the Radical party," why, let anarchy reign supreme; let loose the dogs of war and rapine; keep the old fires of Smithfield trimmed and burning, and forget not the liberal spirit of the Salem witch-burners. "Who is afraid!" cries every petty satrap, every cross-road whipper-in of the great Radical hierarchy, as he flourishes his knout in the face of outraged law, and violated humanity. Sure enough, why should they be. Trifling occurrences, no larger than a gnat, compared to the enormous villainies daily practiced in the so-called loyal States, are inflated by hired scribblers to the size of elephants, and thus dispatched and retailed for the edification of horrified readers, North of Mason and Dixon's line. Cries of fraud and murder; of lawlessness and rebellion, are pealed into the ears of a Congress, ever ready to uphold the wicked strong at the expense of the innocent weak.

The bayonet and the sword are the only alternatives given to the people, as a choice between outrage and submission. Valid elections are set aside by a simple stroke of some autocratic pen. Bad men are hoisted, at the point of the bayonet into posts of honor, profit and power, against the expressed will of a majority of the people; and expressions of ill-will, and demands for justice on the part of the people, are chronicled as the mutterings of incipient rebellion, and held up as evidences of their incurable insubordination, and the necessity of further Radical legislation, in order to "crush them out."

Richard Everett, a colored man who has taken the stump in Louisiana against the rule and ruin party, and who has evidently fallen very far from Radical grace, uses the following argument in favor of peace, law and order:

"My argument is in the first view, to protect our friends at home, and try to live together as a band of citizens and people that had been raised and lived together for years—that it would be best to support those whom we knew and who had treated us kindly, and would treat us kindly in the future; that our former masters would like to have our labor; that we would be useful to them and they would be useful to us; that they have always done what was right; that they held us as slaves because it was the law, and when the law said that slavery should exist no longer, they agreed

Ah, Richard! we are afraid love's labor is lost, as long as the Radical party finds it necessary to keep the flames of fanaticism and persecution alive throughout our fallen country, in order that the power and exchequer of the nation may remain in the itchy palms of its leaders. We shall have to ask the question: Have the people any rights? for some time to come, ere it can be answered in the affirmative.

Life Insurance.

It has often excited our astonishment to see the recklessness with which men of good sense in other matters invest in Life Insurance.

This business, all over the civilized world, has assumed the most immense proportions, and the entire country, through all its cities, towns, and interior, is occupied by agents, embracing some of the best and some of the meanest of men; some of the highest rank, as regards position, talents and birth, and some of the lowest in all respects. The very intermixture referred to points at the most urgent necessity for the people to scrutinize, test, examine, discriminate, before insuring. Nor should this vitally important investment be made on the strength of personal partiality or friendship for the agent. The company is the guardian we have to select for our families, or our own old age, not the agent. "But I have confidence in my friend, and he tells me that his company is the best." Perhaps he thinks so; perhaps the commission dependant upon your insurance makes him pretend to think so. Look at the facts. Demand proof. Ask for the record. Not such proofs as he may present in his own figures and calculations, but such as are official. Find out the per cent. of expenses; the per cent. of dividends; the amount of outstanding obligations; the assets, in cash or in notes; and an official list showing how the company stands in all these respects, as compared with others, for, of course, every one wants the best. It is madness to say that one company is as good as another; for, of the one hundred and fifty companies in America, there are no two whose figures are precisely the same on any point in their history. Pause, examine, compare, before you are led by the voluble agent to make this all important investment, upon which may hang the only dependence of the loved ones around you, or of your own declining age.

We believe, that to a certain extent, no man can make a better investment in the world. It is an investment which every one should make, whether rich or poor. And there are companies in the land whose affairs are administered so ably and conscientiously as to yield a first-class business investment, as safe and profitable depositories of money, even if they furnished no insurance. The example of the Royal Albert, the International and the Albion of England, and of several in America, which have failed, should teach care and prudence. Remember that three-fourths of the companies that have been chartered have failed. But yet, we are convinced, and our judgment is backed by the well matured opinions of some of the ablest men of the age, that a prudently managed and proper system of Life Insurance, is the safest of all financial institutions, for obvious reasons. The examples of the tens of thousands of policy-holders, whose hopes were disappointed, and the prospects of many of whom were blasted by the failures referred to, should teach the people caution and circumspection. A life company may operate for years after it becomes insolvent, according to the standard; and there is nothing more certain, as the records of the insurance departments show, than that a large number are now on the road to ruin. No sane man who has access to the records of many of those companies would invest a dollar for any consideration. These facts should always be demanded and proven. The outstanding obligation; the amount of assets; how much cash; how much in notes of hand; how it is invested; the per cent. of expenses; the per cent. of dividends; the per cent. paid to stockholders; the commission paid to general agents; the per cent. of mortality experienced; a copy of the charter.

Augusta Horticultural Exhibition.

The Cotton States Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair Association will have a grand horticultural exhibition at the Fair Grounds in Augusta on the 11th day of May, to consist of plants and flowers, cut flowers, fruits and vegetables. Rev. Charles W. Howard has been selected as the orator of the day. The editor of THE CONSTITUTION acknowledges the receipt of a special invitation from Mr. K. H. Gray, the Secretary of the Association, and will try to be represented

Hon. (?) Richard H. Whitely.

Editor Constitution: This loyal individual is still in Washington, trying to get in as United States Senator from Georgia. I propose to give your readers a short account of his military career during the "late unpleasantness," as I had the honor of serving four years in the same command with him.

Early in 1861, he was a rabid secessionist, and volunteered in the "Hardee Rifles," Capt. Hugh M. King, from Bainbridge, Ga., which was company H, 5th regiment Georgia Volunteers. He soon distinguished himself (?) by seeking the position of Judge Advocate (or recorder) of all the petty courts martial in our command, and it was a notorious fact that no matter how black the offense, by greasing his palm with a sufficient quantity of Confederate currency, the criminal could go scot free. He always managed to be detailed on some such duty whenever the regiment was engaged, and on one occasion, at Kenhesaw Mountain, he was put in command of the outpost pickets and videttes, very near the enemy. The climate was rather too warm for his loyal heart, and he was too full of the milk of human kindness to want to hurt the boys in blue. So he quietly went to sleep half a mile to the rear, and left his responsible position in charge of the gallant Capt. Hester, of Augusta, Ga. Our brigade commander (Gen. J. K. Jackson) reprimanded him severely.

Afterwards, at the bloody field of Jonesboro, Ga., he could not control his cowardly legs, and ran clear out of the fight. We found him far in the rear, snugly hid away in a fortified pit, with the infirmary corps. Here he would undoubtedly have been cashiered for cowardice, had he not, by boot-licking General S. R. Gist, obtained leave of absence, and never rejoined his command, except to be paroled, in North Carolina, and come in for a heavy share of the wagons and mules given to his command, which he afterwards sold to a great advantage to himself.

In the above statement of facts, many of my old soldier comrades, in the gallant old 5th Georgia, will readily recognize the character of this Major Whitely, who is trying to palm himself off as one of the "trooly loil." A deeper disgrace could never be put on the good people of the Empire State of the South than by admitting this monstrous humbug, as one of her U. S. Senators. Shades of Berrien and Colquitt forbid!

ONE OF THE 5TH GA. REG.

"John Rice—Party Warfare."

Communicated.

Editor Constitution: Under this caption, "Captain Blodgett's" paper of yesterday morning, emphatically charges that because Mr. Jno. Rice, President of the Georgia National Bank, of this city, is in Washington laboring vigorously for the defeat of representative, are asked to ostracise him and the house of which he is the head?"

This being news to me, a citizen and business man, I would be glad if the Captain's paper would furnish the proof of its charge. I dislike "bare assertion." Where is the evidence? And in what manner is it being done? And by whom? And when? It will not do for so veracious a paper as that of the "Captain's" to have a statement of its own unsupported when the proof is called for. Military men always support their batteries!

If Mr. Jno. Rice, President of the Georgia National Bank, of this city, has leisure from his legitimate business of Banking for the commercial men of Atlanta, to remain a month or two at Washington, and in company with certain negroes of the Georgia Legislature," the Captain," His Excellency the Governor, et id omne genus, for the purpose of using his great personal influence to defeat the "Bingham Amendment," I do not see what the business men of Atlanta have to do with it, so long as their monied transactions in the Bank are properly conducted! And I protest that they have not been asked to ostracise him, and call for evidence to the contrary! Will "Captain Blodgett's" paper give it to the public?

The Case of Georgia.

From the Chicago Tribune (Radical.)

Without dissenting from the wisdom and patriotism which have required that every State heretofore readmitted into the Union should first have elected State officers and Representatives in Congress of the Republican pattern, we trust we may be permitted, without mortal offense to the little people who make their living out of politics, to doubt whether its interests, or those of the country, require that Georgia, which has Republican officers now, should be kept out of the Union for fear she may elect Democratic officers hereafter. This is the exact quality of the milk in the Georgia cocoanut, which is now being tossed from the House to the Senate and back.

Mr. Butler says, in substance: "Tie the present State officers into their chairs for three years to come, which is nearly three years longer than the people elected them to serve, and I am ready to readmit the State. If not I go for keeping the State out of the Union until it votes Radical on the negro and reconstruction questions." And Mr. Sumner echoes the same sentiment in the Senate. As there is nothing left of these questions now except the question of the readmission of Georgia, everything else having been settled by the 15th Amendment, General Butler's motion is not to let Georgia come in until she herself is willing to vote that she ought to be kept out. We confess that if this be sound statesmanship, or decent workmanship, or anything else that is "ship-shape," we fail to see the sense of it. It looks as if Butler and Sumner regarded the reconstruction question as the English lawyer did the chancery suit which he bequathed to his son, as a thing that was never to be settled, decided, or compromised, but which, having made the fortune of himself, his father, and his grandfather, he desired to see handed down to his grandson, and grand-grandson, as long as any heirs male remained in the family to attend to it.

The readmission of Georgia will restore the Union, and so far as the mission of the Republican party was to restore the Union, its mission is ended. But we have invetterate and profound contempt for that obstructionist class of mere partisans who, having made something out of the war, would fain keep rebel animosities and discontent alive, under the apprehension that when they are mustered out from service against the rebels, they will be discharged from political life altogether, as having no capacity for anything else. Such politicians rightly suspect their incapacity and the people should take them at their word.

When the reconstruction question has, like the negro question, been settled, as it will be by the admission of Georgia, the chief duty of the Republican party will be to restore the prosperity of the country from the low stage to which it was brought by the devastation and destruction of the war, and, at the same time, to enhance the national credit, not only by a judicious and wise revenue system, but by absolute concord and revived and enlarged commerce, and fraternal feeling between the sections lately at war. The pretence that the rebel States are a smouldering volcano is a deadly assault upon the national credit, as well as a political untruth. It is the first duty of the Republican party to stamp under foot every misguided effort to keep alive the animosities of the war, now that the ballot is firmly and irrevocably secured to the emancipated race.

Suppose the Democrats carry the next election in Georgia, as they are very likely to do, under the present provocation, what harm will result to the State, or what reason will that fact, if it could be predicted, furnish why the State should not now be readmitted? None whatever! We know the silent omnipotence of the ballot to secure kind treatment by the politicians towards those who need it. What if, in the State at large, the Democrats, former slave owners and ex-rebels have a majority? In many of the counties, the two parties are evenly divided, and in not a few, the Republicans, most of whom are black, are in the majority. To cater to and win the colored vote in these, politicians of every grade will soon learn to treat the black man with decent respect, if not with genuine kindness, at elections and elsewhere, throughout the entire State.

No more is needed. It is not essential to the peace of Georgia that the black minority shall rule the white majority forever. It is not consistent with manliness and dignity in Republicans to plot for or abet that anti-republican outrage. The blacks of Georgia, being confessedly in the minority in numbers, in property, in intelligence and in capacity for government, have not the audacity to ask or expect to govern the State. It would be a threefold outrage against the rights of the majority, the interests of the tax-payers, and the rule of intelligence to coerce the State to submit to their rule by Congressional legislation. Again we urge that the State of Georgia be promptly admitted without conditions, and the Union restored.

A Maysville, Ky., benedict has run away with a grass widow. He will be cured before she will.

Hon. R. H. Whitely, Senator elect, arrived at home, in Bainbridge, Ga., on the 10th inst.

He is at present confined to his room with rheumatism.

The gardens in and around Bainbridge, Ga., are very fine indeed.

The corn prospect in Pierce county, Ga., is good.

In the Toledo, Ohio, Congressional district, Dr. Peck, Radical, is elected to Congress by a majority of 2,787 over Mr. Hill, the Democratic candidate. This majority was the result of running an Independent Democratic candidate.

The Griffin Georgian says that Mr. Samuel A. Scott, of that county, has invented a Distributing Plow which is said to be the most ingenious machine of the day. It distributes anything. It will drill wheat, cotton, guano, or any grain, and it is claimed that it will plant corn. As a guano distributor it is a most excellent machine. A patent is applied for by Mr. Scott.

A suit was yesterday commenced in the United States Circuit Court of New York by the English shareholders of the Erie Railway, against Gould, Fisk and Lane, of the Erie direction.

T. W. Grimes, Esq., will deliver the address on the occasion of the soldiers' grave decoration, in Columbus, Ga., on the 26th.

In the Senate, Abbott, of North Carolina, made a speech on the Georgia Bill, a little out of the usual line, by favoring a national military police for the South to preserve law and order. He appeared to favor the new Radical policy, which is gradually developing for policing the South with an armed force.

The House special committee on the subject of a Government system of telegraph has agreed to report a bill, which, in effect, provides for the purchase of the existing lines, and places them under the Government control, prohibiting at the same time any other lines from being worked by private parties or corporations. It proposes to connect the lines with all post-offices, and provides for a cheap rate for messages. A similar bill is pending in the Senate.

The Senate Political Disability Committee, rather than wait for a general amnesty bill, have decided to report a special act relieving the disabilities of nearly 2,000 Southerners.

A memorial of Cyrus W. Field was presented to Congress, expressing a desire to undertake the laying of a telegraphic cable between America and Asia.

Proceedings of the Georgia Medical Association.

From the Macon Journal.]

SECOND DAY.

Dr. Thomas, of Savannah, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That we tender to Dr. J. M. Green, President of the Blind Asylum, Macon, Ga., and the superintendent and officers of the same, our most cordial thanks for the very interesting exhibition of the attainments of the scholars of the institution.

Resolved, That this Institution is deserving of the most hearty support of our State.

Resolved, That we recommend that the professional men throughout the State take some interest in hunting up all the blind children, and sending them to this Institution for education.

The Committee on Nomination reported as follows:

Dr H F Campbell, President.
Dr J G Thomas, First Vice President.
Dr G G Crawford, Second Vice President.
Dr J E Blackshear, Treasurer.
Dr H P Myers, Permanent Secretary.
Dr W C Musgrove, Corresponding Secretary.
Dr W S Holt, Orator, Dr Cooper, Alternate.

The above named gentlemen were unanimously elected.

The following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the American Medical Association.

Dr W A Green, Sumter county; Dr S G White, Baldwin county; Dr H H Smith, Screven county; Dr T S Powell, Fulton county; Dr R D Arnold, Chatham county; Dr Jurish Harris, Chatham county; Dr W H Doughty, Richmond county; Dr J A Mims, Screven county; Dr E J Roach, Fulton county; Dr Ed E Newton, Clark county; Dr G E Sussdorf, Bibb county.

Dr. Lowe offered the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, There are many within this State engaged in imposing upon the ignorant and unwary, by claiming to be of our profession, who are in no way legitimately connected with the same, not licensed practitioners of medicine, yet claim to be of the regular school and practice under assumed names, and by such show of authority, thereby fleecing the public, and casting reproach upon the profession, and

Whereas, It is the opinion of this Association, an act of simple justice to the regular profession, that they be allowed to say, and to say authoritatively, who are its regular members, and who are mere interlopers claiming to be of our household, but not of our faith; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the President to memorialize the General Assembly of the State of Georgia to enact such laws amendatory of the present existing statutes and laws, as will enable the Medical Board of Examiners for this State to draw with authority the line of demarkation between the regular graduates and licensed practitioners of our school, and the imposters who impose upon the masses under false pretences.

Whereupon the President appointed W. A. Love, S. G. Crawford and J. E. Blackshear, a committee to memorialize the General Assembly of the State.

Dr. Harris, of Savannah, moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of reading communications from the Trustees and Faculty of the Atlanta Medical College. Carried.

The Secretary then read several letters received from the said college.

On motion, the Association adjourned.

General R. E. Lee.

General R. E. Lee sailed on the steamer Nick King, last Tuesday, to visit the grave of his father, General Harry Lee, ("Light Horse Harry,") situated at Dungeness, Cumberland Island, on the coast of Georgia.

General Harry Lee was, during the winter of 1817-18, at the West Indies for his health. He sailed from Nassau on the ship "Betsy," for Savannah, on the 10th of February, 1818.

Instead of landing at Savannah, he only reached Cumberland Island, where he was received by Mrs. Shaw, the daughter of

He died soon after his arrival, on the 25th of March, 1818. It was doubtless a consolation to him, as he could not reach his home, to have his last hours soothed by the tender care of the daughter of one he so much revered, and to know that his remains would be placed by the side of his comrade in arms.

One incident of his death is worth recording as showing how his veneration for Washington and his fondness for expressing it clung to him to the last. A surgical operation was proposed, as offering some hope of prolonging his life. The surgeon urging this resort, his patient put an end to the discussion by saying: "My dear sir, were the great Washington alive and here, and joining you in advocating it, I would still resist."

Dungeness is now the property of Mr. William Nightengale, a grandson of Gen. Greene, and whose guest Gen. Lee is at the present time. The latter will probably return to Savannah by the end of the week, and remain here until the time arrives for his departure for Virginia. So our Florida friends, who have expressed such anxiety to greet the old hero, will probably be disappointed, unless they come to Savannah.—Savannah Republican.

Our Governor.

The Boston Post evidently knows Bullock just about as well as the people down here in Georgia do. It gives him this complimentary notice which we cheerfully publish without charge. We are very sure Forney would not be as liberal;

"If Governor Bullock's stories were true, he ought to be made the first subject of military rule and be put under guard and sent home with instructions to discharge his duty and see that the laws are executed, or else vacate his office. The Senate demeans itself and degrades the country, while it does Georgia the grossest injustice, by suffering this inveterate demagogue and political gamester to leave his post of duty to infest the lobbies and even encroach upon the seats of Senators, to ply his art of falsehood, trickery and impudent demand."

Carr, who was hung in Belmont county, Ohio, the other day, admitted that his first sin was voting the Radical ticket.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Luckie and Judge Ezza d and family, are requested to attend the Funeral of LIZZIE L. EZZARD, daughter of John F. Ezzard, deceased, who died at the residence of her grandfather at 9 o'clock, P. M., on the 15th instant, from Wesley Chapel, at four o'clock, THIS EVENING.

MARIETTA STREET.—We are pleased to see that the stores on Marietta street, between Peachtree and Broad, are filled up as fast as completed.

The old Norcross corner, where Lawshe had his Drug Store, will be occupied by Messrs. Phillips & Crew, Booksellers and Stationers.

Frichman & Loveman, Dry Goods dealers, occupy the next.

A small store, next door above, is being fitted up for a shoe shop.

O'Connor & Keogh, Millinery and Dress Goods, have opened out in the next.

Our energetic friends, Carroll & Ketcham, with a full stock, hold forth at the store above, while a Knight of the Lather and Strap practices his profession in the basement.

Messrs. Hunnicutt & Bellingrath, Gas Fitters, Plumbers, &c., are moving their complete assortment of goods into the last store that is ready.

That section is now resuming its former lively appearance, and has been named the Gate City Block.

BAPTIST CHURCH AT WEST END.—A neat Baptist Church, of brick, is being built at the junction of Whitehall street and the Macon and Western Railroad, in front of G. W. Adair's residence, by Messrs. Broomhead & Alexander. John H. James paid $30 for the ground, and pays the contractors $2,300 for putting up the building. The Church is to be fitted up in a neat and easy style with gothic roof and steeple. The Church will be a welcome addition to the public buildings of West End. We observed yesterday that Mr. James, had laborers hired at his own expense making a good road-way 25 feet wide along the bank of the railroad, to afford a safe road to the Church.

A HOMESTEAD DECISION.—On yesterday, Judge Daniel Pittman, Ordinary, held in the matter of the application of E. T. White and wife for a homestead in personalty, (their interest being an undivided third) that a homestead could not be set apart in undivided property. Newman & Harrison represented petitioners, and Capt. H. Jackson, Sidney Dell, J. T. Glenn and A. M. Reinhardt the creditors.

NEW ENGINES ON STATE ROAD.—We learn that three new engines are now ready to be put on the Western and Atlantic Railroad, and that one will be named "Gen. A. H. Terry"; one "Benjamin Conley," and one "John H. Flynn." The last engine in any ways like the man it is named after would secure to the rebel element a remodeling of the State Constitutions, and the late rebel States would in 1872 again be found rallying around the national Democratic councils. But the Republican party would never outlive the rottenness of a total abandonment of the honored rules in the Senate, and would have to reverse its record in behalf of those people.

If not supported by national arms, the colored loyalists in the South would surely bite the dust. He could not live there. He (Hamilton) for one. If the principles of the Bingham Amendment prevailed, would not dare return to his own community. He didn't believe any native Republican would dare live there. He knew the people there. He was born and raised among them; had lived all his life among them, and they were the most blood-thirsty set of cut-throats God had ever permitted on his foot-stool.

Governor Bullock, of Georgia, and General Clark, of Texas, shook hands with Hamilton on his conclusion.

[We wonder how much Hamilton was paid to make this speech?]

Boreman and Pool spoke against the principles of the Amendment.

Pool favored military intervention in the South.

The motion to adjourn was lost by a tie vote.

It was finally agreed to take a final vote on Tuesday at 6 o'clock.

The Senate adjourned.

In the House, the Conference report on the deficiency bill was adopted.

District of Columbia matters were discussed afterwards, and several bills of local interest passed.

The House adjourned till Monday.

Seven appropriation bills are yet to be considered, and several members deplored the adjournment.

After an informal discussion it was decided to vote in the negative at the Plebescite and to circulate manifestoes against the object of the Plebescite.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Senator Harris was before the Judiciary Committee of the Senate in regard to the division of Louisiana into two judicial districts. Mr. Harris has the assurance of the committee that they will report in favor of the division.

The President has recognized Mr. Bure as Consul of France at Charleston, and Xavier Weissenback as Consul of the Swiss Confederation for Louisiana, Alabama, Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi, to reside at New Orleans.

In relation to a second ratification of the 15th Amendment by persons that visited the President, he replied: "I could not say anything to those here assembled this evening, to convince them, any further than I have done. It is my earnest desire to see the 15th Amendment become a part of the Constitution. I will only add that I hope those enfranchised will prove themselves worthy of the benefits which it confers on them, and those who have the franchise without it, and that all may be mutually benefitted by it. I feel confident that this will be the result. If I had not thought to, I would not have been so anxious for its ratification."

LEWISTOWN, Maine, April 15.—The grand lodges of temperance resolved to take no direct action in politics at present.

Observance of Good Friday.

NEW YORK.—Good Friday was more generally observed than ever before.

The Produce Exchange, stocks and gold boards and several mercantile and banking houses were closed. The courts adjourned yesterday till Monday. All the Episcopal and Catholic churches were open, and services were well attended.

O'Neil's majority for Mayor of new consolidated Jersey City, is 3,830. The Board of Aldermen stand—21 Democrats and 11 Republicans.

POREIGN.

The Clergy.

MADRID, April 15.—The Spanish clergy persist in their refusal to swear allegiance to the Constitution. Though the time within which they are required to take the oath is short, they have shown no disposition to yield.

Executions.

Five men have been execute at Barcelona for robberies and assassinations committed last month.

The New Ministry.

VIENNA, April 15.—The new Ministry have issued their manifesto of policy. They say they will endeavor to smooth the difficulties and soften the asperities, but without departing from the constitutional ways or violating imperial rights. The government will identify itself with the movement for national development, on the basis of common rights.

☞ The Scientific American gives an account of the manufacture of perfumery in Southern France, and the cultivation of flowers for that purpose, the latter business being much more extensive than might at first be supposed. Orange blossoms seem to be in the greatest demand—737 tons of that material worked up into odors annually. Roses come next in popular favor, of which there are used 365 tons yearly; then of jessamine 50 tons, of violets 37 tons, and of geranium leaves 15 tons. The scent of the daffodil is among the least popular, two tons and a half of that blossom being all that the fashionable nose will imbibe.

GOOD FRIDAY.—Yesterday was Good Friday, the same given the anniversary of the Crucifixion of our Saviour, being the third day or the Friday before Easter, which is held as a solemn fast by a great part of the Christian world. The day is held in high reverence and esteem, and its sacred observance is firm, and sales are made at 70@73, sacks included.

KOSZOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues given by professional and unofficial parties no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver diseases, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. Wm. H. Holcombe, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of his curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koszoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koszoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

REASONS why you should use TUTT'S IMPROVED LIQUID HAIR DYE:

Because the harbors say it is the best.
Because it imparts a natural color.
Because it does not injure the hair.
Because it leaves the hair soft and glossy.
Because it does not stain the skin or bed linen.
Because its application is simple and easy.

HELP FOR THE MILLIONS.—No wonder that the face of the dyspeptic has a dragged, worn, hopeless expression that is pitiful to see. No wonder that the miserable martyrs to indigestion is fretful, irritable, and unsocial. Whoever can bear the pangs of this terrible complaint cheerfully, and with an unruffled temper, is little short of a saint. But why should human fortitude continue to be thus severely tried, when an absolute specific for the disease is always at hand. Everywhere within the limits of civilization in this hemisphere, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is obtainable, and the history of the first case of dyspepsia in which it has been administered in vain has yet to be written. The sickness at the stomach, the sense of weakness and stupor, the feeling of emptiness and hollowness before eating, and of oppression afterwards, the fluttering of the pulse, the intense nervous irritation, the morbid indisposition to exertion, the weariness of life, and indifference to all its pleasures, which are among the symptoms of the disease in its chronic form are rapidly ameliorated by the tonic operation of this palatable vegetable restorative, which seems to renovate and quicken all the dormant forces of the system, and rouse the mind from the apathy and gloom inseparable from a derangement of the digestive and secretive functions. In ordinary cases a few weeks suffices to complete the cure, but when the disease is complicated, as it often is, with torpidity of the liver, severe constipation, impurity of the blood, and a sluggish circulation, a long time may be required. Persevere, however, and the result is certain. An encouraging improvement will be perceptible from day to day, and the convalescent, knowing and feeling that he or she is on the high road to health, will await the happy issue with comparative patience.

WE notice that W. A. Lansdell is sole agent for Dow's "Ice Cream Soda Apparatus." He has now on hand a sample of their make, with all the modern improvements. As the hot months are approaching, it would be well to give this matter some attention.

He will shortly receive a magnificent apparatus, intended for his own use. This is a mammoth concern, combining beauty with strength, and coolness with splendid soda water—not forgetting the ice cream attachment, which is itself something new and extraordinary, none need complain of being hot the coming season.

A FEW words about S-T-1860-X., which Mrs. Partington says means "Satan turned loose in 1860; but she don't know what X means." Why, good lady, it is the national emblem—the sign over your door—the innocent latin of PLANTATION BITTERS. Everybody and everything has a sign or name. This is our sign, which has been read by more men, women, and children, and carried a blessing into more families in every part of the habitable globe, than any sign in America. But the name is of little consequence; it is the article which is so universally applicable for that numerous class of complaints which come under the head of "Out of Sorts."

Custards, soups, gruels, etc., etc., made from SEA MOSS FARINA, can be taken by invalids at all times, and retained upon the stomach, while other preparations are rejected. apl3deod1w&w1t.

GEORGIA, CAMPBELL COUNTY.—Having determined to sell my entire interest in and to my fine MILL FOR SALE. This Mill is located 4½ miles from Palmetto, in one of the most fertile sections of Middle Georgia, and one of the best neighborhoods in the county. Any person desiring to purchase a Merchant Mill, will find this, perhaps, the most desirable of any Mill in the State. I will offer this Mill at private sale until Fall, or until it is sold. BRANNEN STOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

WHY is it that so many children die under the age of five years? That a large proportion of children die under that age, has long been a subject of remark, and without a satisfactory cause ascertained, it is certain.

Also, it is known that worms exist in the human system from its earliest infancy; therefore parents, who are desirous of preserving the health of their children, can not be too observing of the first appearance of worms; for as surely as they exist, can they be surely and certainly removed from the most Delicate Infant, by the timely use of Dr. A. Pahnestock's Vermifuge.

It is perfectly harmless, contains no Mercury, being a purely Vegetable Composition, and may be administered with the same safety to children of eight years.

Worm Confections, made more for the purpose of pleasing the palate than of overcoming the disease, are frequently administered, when the victim, but their short lease of life is nearly exhausted, and Dr. A. Pahnestock's Vermifuge continues to grow in favor daily.

Should occasion require you to purchase Dr. A. Pahnestock's Vermifuge, be particularly careful you see that the initials are D. A. This is the spirit of the fluid has been so

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

THE MESSAGE.

From the Galveston News.]

Oh, how will I send my message to her?
How tell her that I die forgiven?
How may I ask about the soul that may,
And she had so long to live.

(I thought) For how could I know how sudden
The sea would cover her in!
Would I had forgiven! for after all
It was such a little sin!

If she has been judged and hath arisen,
I know that in Paradise
She walks as near the gates as she may,
Straining her eager eyes,

To see each new-clad soul as it enters,
And to question if there be
A token for her among the rest,
Or a word of love from me!

Lest while I would have sent it to her,
But just as I stooped to speak
In the dying baby's ear—he died!
The word were easy to take.

And I know that if still the sea goes over
Her upturned face by the wreck,
She questions each white, white face that smiles
From the ships above, at her beach.

But the ships at our wharves—I look them over—
They seem so strong and so gay,
Not one will ever go down I know,
And the years are slipping away!

☞ The Stanton memorial fund, now amounting to $146,000, is on deposit in a New York bank, drawing interest for the benefit of his family. The maimed Federal soldiers are still begging on the corners, or grinding hand organs for the benefit of their families.

INDEED!—Mr. Henderson, (colored,) member of the School Board in Lawrence, Kansas, in a late speech, said he would be willing that white children should have the same privileges to attend the free schools as the colored children. Thank you!

A Fifeshire man recently took his child to the minister to be baptized, who asked him: "Are you prepared for so important and solemn an occasion?'t "Prepared!" he echoed, somewhat indignantly; "I hae a firlot o' bannocks bakin' twa hame, an' a gallon o' the best Ilieland whisky, an' I would just like to ken what better preparation ye could expeck frae a man in my condition o' life."

TAX ON UNSOLD MANUFACTURES.—Upon the presentation of a claim for the refunding of taxes paid upon manufactured articles remaining on hand when the law imposing such taxes was repealed, and which in point of fact had not been sold, although returned by the manufacturer in his monthly return as sold, and the taxes thereon voluntarily paid by him, it was held by the Commissioners of Internal Revenue that such taxes were not erroneously or illegally assessed, and should not be refunded."

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE,

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the nerves become pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dulness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth; coated tongue; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; paying gravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding, with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the deficiency, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted by the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, the how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets With GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and consumption hushing down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over work (mental and physical), are causing a decay of the nervous system to increase at a rapid rate.

The symptoms in which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Indecision; Lassitude; Nervous Startings; Sleeplessness; Bad Dreams; Horrible Imaginings; Sudden Flushes of Heat; Cold Feet; Drowsiness; Twitching of the Face and Limbs, etc., which, if not promptly checked, is followed by Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Inflammation, Softening of the Brain, etc.

THE WILLINGHAM FERTILIZER

FOR

COTTON, CORN,

WHEAT.

THIS STANDARD MANURE, named after a well known practical Planter of South Carolina, combines in a concentrated form all the fertilizing elements necessary for production of COTTON, CORN and WHEAT, and by its use is certain to increase not only the quantity of the product, but to improve the quality of the same. It is adapted to all soils of the South, and can be relied upon as to excellence of material, containing all necessary substances, the great cost of which have heretofore precluded their being used. It can be depended on as uniform, always reliable, and productive of good crops.

Having a full knowledge of the composition and process of manufacture of the Willingham Cotton, Corn, Wheat and Rice Fertilizer, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it a valuable fertilizer, one of the best in use, and most particularly adapted to the soils of South Carolina.
